

PROGRESS OPENEDGE DEVELOPMENT STAFF SKILLS ASSESSMENT

Assessment Highlights

- Maintain alignment of staff skills and company goals
- Ensure the health and retention of Progress® OpenEdge® developers
- Stay in-step with the newest features and capabilities of the OpenEdge platform
- Execute targeted training to equip your developers for future success

Are Your OpenEdge Staff's Skills Aligned with Your Organizational Goals?

Grooming and retaining a solid base of Progress OpenEdge developers is critical to your development team's productivity and success. Your staff's skill level translates directly into higher revenue, lower expenses and less risk. By keeping their skills up to date, you'll motivate and retain your valuable OpenEdge developers.

However, you may lack in-house programs to assess and manage your staff's OpenEdge skills. Continuous updates and improvements in the platform's capabilities are difficult to track and apply; not taking advantage of those changes can put your team at a disadvantage.

The OpenEdge Development Staff Skills Assessment consists of rigorous, in-depth assessments led by top Progress Professional Services consultants, who can evaluate your staff's knowledge and prescribe the training they need. The service provides a consistent, measurable means to assess your organization needs and your staff's skill level, and identify focus areas for growth and training.

"We had limited knowledge and experience in critical areas, and the Progress team helped guide us toward the best solution for our business."
